The speakers enlightened them the prospects of different courses and at the same time warned them regarding the cut throat competition. It was insisted that they have to improve other skills such as English Communication skills and Soft Skills along with their technical skills. More than 25 alumni of SITAMS attended the meeting and many shared their experiences with in the college, placement opportunities and their personal experiences. The Heads of the Departments in SITAMS presented a brief account of the facilities and achievements of the concerned departments. The meet would not have become success without the presence of the alumni gathered during the event. Hence, an appeal is made to the alumni from diversified fields to be in touch with their Alma-Mater in order to guide and encourage their juniors and thereby enhance the prestige of the institution.
